Désiré Ahola moved from his native Cameroon, West Africa, to Croatia in 1992. He organized a small group in Zagreb, teaching them beliefs based in Advent Christian doctrine.

Désiré is now leader of the Advent Christian ministry in Central Europe. His once small group has established outreaches in six countries.

The highlight of his ministry is witnessing to college students and tourists on the Adriatic coast each summer.

Désiré and his wife, Martina, have two children. He says, “It is a joy for me to see how God is blessing us each day.”
