Ray Marco remembers as a boy rolling fabric strips into bandages for our missionaries in India. He says it “touched (his) heart deeply.”

God nurtured Ray’s heart for missions, taking him from Peace Dale, Rhode Island, to Berkshire Christian College, to Miami, Florida, and finally to the poverty-stricken nation of Honduras.

Ray has pastored Oak Grove ACC, Miami, around 40 years. He and Ledy lead mission trips to Honduras four times yearly, to a medical clinic and ministry he founded in 1991, Cristo Salva. He and Ledy met through Cristo Salva. She was a school teacher and committed disciple of Christ.

Along with their Oak Grove and Cristo Salva ministries, Ray and Ledy represent AC International Missions in Honduras.
