Pastor Samuel Sosono was elected president of the Malawi AC Conference in 2006 when Malawi and Mozambique churches shared a conference. Within five years he had planted 18 churches in the two countries. Today each country has its own conference.

A native Malawian, Samuel grew up in a Christian family. His dad was a pastor. Samuel was especially successful in Bible knowledge studies.

Samuel became a member of the Advent Christian Church in 1999, when it was founded in Malawi. New Hope ACC, Nsanje, is his home church.

Samuel and his wife, Diana, are blessed with two daughters, Miracle and Deborah Hannah.
