

WHFMS

An organization to encourage, equip and empower women for personal and group development and effective service at all levels: local, conference, regional and national.

Meeting the needs of women by providing encouragement in:

- Christian spiritual growth
- Fellowship
- Outreach
- Service
- Leadership development
- Mentoring

Woman's Home and Foreign Mission Society was founded by Sarah K. Taylor in Friendship, Maine, in July of 1897.

Services of the Office of Women's Ministries

Annual Program Kit —

Monthly programs with a timely theme and supplementary materials including a recommended reading list and other educational resources.

Prayer and Praise —

Brochure published monthly containing denominational items for prayer and praise. Bundles may be ordered from ACGC.

Christmas in October —

A fund-raising project to provide Christmas gifts for international and national missionaries and to help fund other missionaries' benefits.

LEAD Team —

Groups of pastors' wives and women in ministry who make a commitment to meet on a regular basis so they can learn, encourage, achieve and dream together!

Women's Sunday bulletin covers —

Designed annually for use on WHFMS Sunday (last Sunday in September) and for special occasions.

Online resources —

- Visit www.acgc.us to sign up for weekly E-News and view the AC Women's Ministries page, which has many of these resources available.
- "Like" us on Facebook at @ACGCUS — to keep up with resources and current happenings.

WHFMS Update —

A monthly electronic newsletter with the most up-to-date information and current happenings. To receive this, send your e-mail address to Karen Hall (4karenhall@gmail.com).
