

Interested in taking a college-level course but don't have the finances or the time to attend on campus? Berkshire Christian has the answer!

Our Gift to You!

Advent Christian people have faithfully supported the college, and we want to give something back to you. For a limited time we are offering one fully-scholarshipped course to people serving in a local Advent Christian church as a pastor, assistant pastor, youth minister or music minister. We want you to know firsthand what others have already experienced. eBerkshire is a resource you will enjoy and once you have taken a course, we are convinced you will encourage others to do the same! Course offerings include:

The Sweep of God's Story: Survey of the OT or NT (TB01a, TB01b)

A descriptive and critical introduction to the nature of biblical revelation, principles of interpretation and major elements of the Old Testament including the primeval and patriarchal histories, the exodus, monarchic traditions, the message of the prophets and the exilic period; or the New Testament, including the Jesus of the Gospels, the developing church in Acts, the letters of Paul, the General Letters, the visions of the Revelation.

Who is God? An Introduction to Christian Theology (TB02)

This course explores the primary ideas, principles, traditions, and people of important theological movements throughout history. Several teachings are reviewed to introduce students to a theological framework that has informed the foundation for Christian thought.

Christianity Through the Ages (TB03)

Surveys the history of the Christian church from the ascension to modern fundamentalism, ecumenism and Pentecostalism.

Redemption, Resurrection, and Restoration:

Themes of a Biblical Theology (TB04)

This course takes a close look at "the whole Gospel for the whole person" through an in-depth examination of Biblical teachings concerning Redemption, Resurrection, and the Restoration of All Things. (formerly Introduction to Advent Christian Theology)

eBERKSHIRE

Interested in taking a college-level course but don't have the finances or the time to attend on campus? Berkshire Christian has the answer!

Our Gift to You!

Advent Christian people have faithfully supported the college, and we want to give something back to you. For a limited time we are offering one fully-scholarshipped course to people serving in a local Advent Christian church as a pastor, assistant pastor, youth minister or music minister. We want you to know firsthand what others have already experienced. eBerkshire is a resource you will enjoy and once you have taken a course, we are convinced you will encourage others to do the same! Course offerings include:

The Sweep of God's Story: Survey of the OT or NT (TB01a, TB01b)

A descriptive and critical introduction to the nature of biblical revelation, principles of interpretation and major elements of the Old Testament including the primeval and patriarchal histories, the exodus, monarchic traditions, the message of the prophets and the exilic period; or the New Testament, including the Jesus of the Gospels, the developing church in Acts, the letters of Paul, the General Letters, the visions of the Revelation.

Who is God? An Introduction to Christian Theology (TB02)

This course explores the primary ideas, principles, traditions, and people of important theological movements throughout history. Several teachings are reviewed to introduce students to a theological framework that has informed the foundation for Christian thought.

Christianity Through the Ages (TB03)

Surveys the history of the Christian church from the ascension to modern fundamentalism, ecumenism and Pentecostalism.

Redemption, Resurrection, and Restoration:

Themes of a Biblical Theology (TB04)

This course takes a close look at "the whole Gospel for the whole person" through an in-depth examination of Biblical teachings concerning Redemption, Resurrection, and the Restoration of All Things. (formerly Introduction to Advent Christian Theology)

eBERKSHIRE

Additional courses:

History of the Urban Church: Ministry and Impact (URBMIN202)

This course explores the importance of the city in the ministry of the American Christian church.

Making Peace: Biblical Principles for Addressing Conflict (TB07)

How we approach conflict can serve as a mechanism or obstacle for peacemaking. This course explores Biblical principles for identifying situations of conflict and how followers of Christ can use such occurrences to glorify and serve God.

Theology of the City (URBMIN200)

What is God's view of the city? What does Scripture tell us about urban ministry? How can we minister in urban settings? Is there any hope? These and other questions are explored in the course.

Urban Social Issues: People, Problems, and Policy (URBMIN201/SOC205)

The purpose of this course is to provide an overall framework for understanding and examining pertinent social issues in the urban setting and beyond.

Get Started Now!

Here's how. Contact Berkshire Christian to express your interest through one of the methods below.

Email: eberkshire@berkshire.edu

Online: berkshire.edu/admissions-aid/distance-learning/

Students will need to complete the application process* to register for classes. In order to receive this offer, registration for a fully-scholarshipped course must occur before June 8, 2018.

* Completion of a Course Registration Form and Scholarship Application is required at least three weeks prior to enrollment in any course. All courses require that students have at least a high school diploma or GED.

P.O. Box 826
Haverhill, MA 01831
978-372-8122
www.berkshire.edu

Additional courses:

History of the Urban Church: Ministry and Impact (URBMIN202)

This course explores the importance of the city in the ministry of the American Christian church.

Making Peace: Biblical Principles for Addressing Conflict (TB07)

How we approach conflict can serve as a mechanism or obstacle for peacemaking. This course explores Biblical principles for identifying situations of conflict and how followers of Christ can use such occurrences to glorify and serve God.

Theology of the City (URBMIN200)

What is God's view of the city? What does Scripture tell us about urban ministry? How can we minister in urban settings? Is there any hope? These and other questions are explored in the course.

Urban Social Issues: People, Problems,
and Policy (URBMIN201/SOC205)

The purpose of this course is to provide an overall framework for understanding and examining pertinent social issues in the urban setting and beyond.

Get Started Now!

Here's how. Contact Berkshire Christian to express your interest through one of the methods below.

Email: eberkshire@berkshire.edu

Online: berkshire.edu/admissions-aid/distance-learning/

Students will need to complete the application process* to register for classes. In order to receive this offer, registration for a fully-scholarshipped course must occur before June 8, 2018.

* Completion of a Course Registration Form and Scholarship Application is required at least three weeks prior to enrollment in any course. All courses require that students have at least a high school diploma or GED.

P.O. Box 826
Haverhill, MA 01831
978-372-8122
www.berkshire.edu