

*Those who give to the poor
will lack nothing.
Proverbs 28:27*

Over the past 106 years, Advent Christian Village has impacted thousands of lives with the love of Jesus. It began with a gift of land and a determined young pastor with an inspired idea. It would have ended there, however, without the faithful support of Advent Christians across the continent.

God's Economy—Those Who Give Lack Nothing

A lot has changed at Advent Christian Village over the past century, but this much has not: the focus on ministry—expressing the love of Christ through the care and services we provide. ACV's leadership has held a longstanding commitment to serve “everyone in the pew”—those with means and those who have depleted their resources. Every effort is made to keep costs affordable for members. In addition, the Benevolent Fund offers help to members who cannot make ends meet, assisting with basic needs like meals and services; ministering to weary AC pastors; and providing discounts to those who have spent their lives in service to the Lord within the AC denomination.

There is also, however, the dedication to providing quality, comprehensive care and services. An array of essential services and amenities is available to all members of ACV.

This creates a dilemma. How do you keep costs affordable, offer financial assistance to those with limited income and still provide excellent care and services? Only in God's economy—as He works through His people to generously supply the needs. (That also has not changed at ACV—Advent Christians continue to offer their faithful support.)

Many nursing homes avoid serving people who are on Medicaid, yet because of ACV's commitment to serve those in need, we continue to do so, giving them compassionate care for the remainder of their days. This is especially challenging this year, as the amount of Medicaid reimbursement for Good Samaritan Center decreased by over $850,000 for 2020. We are working hard to lessen the impact of that blow, but we need your help.

We invite you to be part of the Lord's provision of this specific need at Advent Christian Village.

Please remember ACV in your prayers and add your financial support by sending your gift today.
