

The Lord said: If any of your people become poor and unable to support themselves, you must help them, just as you are supposed to help foreigners who live among you.

Leviticus 25:35

Serving those who Serve

Advent Christian Village is blessed to have many retired Advent Christian ministers, missionaries and their spouses living in the community. This special group of people dedicated their lives to the Lord's work, surrendering the opportunity to gain earthly wealth. Now, even as they continue to serve in numerous ways, several of them are finding it difficult to make ends meet. Their income cannot keep pace with the ever-changing cost of living and the escalating cost of medical care.

Since its earliest days, Advent Christian Village has offered a refuge for those who have so selflessly served. Through Fifth Sunday offerings and other benevolent gifts, support is offered in a variety of ways. Some receive assistance with rent, meals and services. Others are given assistance with the cost of assisted living at Dacier Manor or even skilled nursing at Good Samaritan Center, making it possible to receive the care they need.

It is a vital ministry, providing comfort and security to those who have spent their entire careers in Advent Christian churches and mission fields—and one that is deeply appreciated by those who benefit from it. Please prayerfully consider what you can do to help this special group of people, as well as the many other senior adults, families with special needs and children served by this ministry.
