Outstanding Leaders of the Future in Training Now

Have confidence in your leaders and submit to their authority, because they keep watch over you as those who must give an account. Do this so that their work will be a joy, not a burden, for that would be of no benefit to you.

Hebrews 13:17

Needed: Capable Leaders

We need exceptional leaders—those skilled in team-building, communication, decision-making and problem solving—with a firm grounding in biblical principles.

As a high school student, “Ana” was recommended by her teachers to attend Leadership Development Training at Advent Christian Village. Ana had the makings of a strong leader, she just needed to hone her potential. As a first-generation American girl, she had more obstacles to overcome than most in order to emerge as a leader. At the weekend trainings, she embraced the challenges and applied what she learned, quickly becoming a well-liked leader among the group.

After graduation, Ana joined the US Navy, as planned. While fellow recruits struggled with boot camp, she excelled. Soon Ana was rising through the ranks and now is doing well as a recruiter in Jacksonville, FL. While the military can be a challenging environment, Ana says that the skills she learned at Leadership Training gave her a firm footing and accelerated her growth. Without it, she would have had a much harder climb.

Ana’s training was made possible by gifts to ACV’s ministries. There are many more future leaders to train.
