Personal & Ministry Inventory

We place a high value on our pastors and ministry leaders being able to enjoy time away from their ministry responsibilities for the purpose of personal refreshment and renewal. We you able to take time away this year for that purpose? If yes, please describe (vacation, Sundays off, sabbatical, etc.)

If your answer to the previous question is "no," is there anything your conference, region or ACGC can do to be of more assistance to you in this area?

On a scale of 1 to 5, how encouraged are you in your ministry and calling? (1 being not at all, and 5 being very encouraged) *If you'd like to comment more on this, please make use of the Additional Comments section at the end.

1                       2                       3                       4                       5

What are some resources (books, seminars, podcasts, classes) that have been helpful to you this year? (Personal or Ministry Related)

Are there any ways the conference, region or ACGC can be of more help to you personally or in your ministry, and what are some specific ways we can be praying for you?

What has been your greatest challenge this year?

What has been your greatest joy this year?
