Advent Christian Denomination

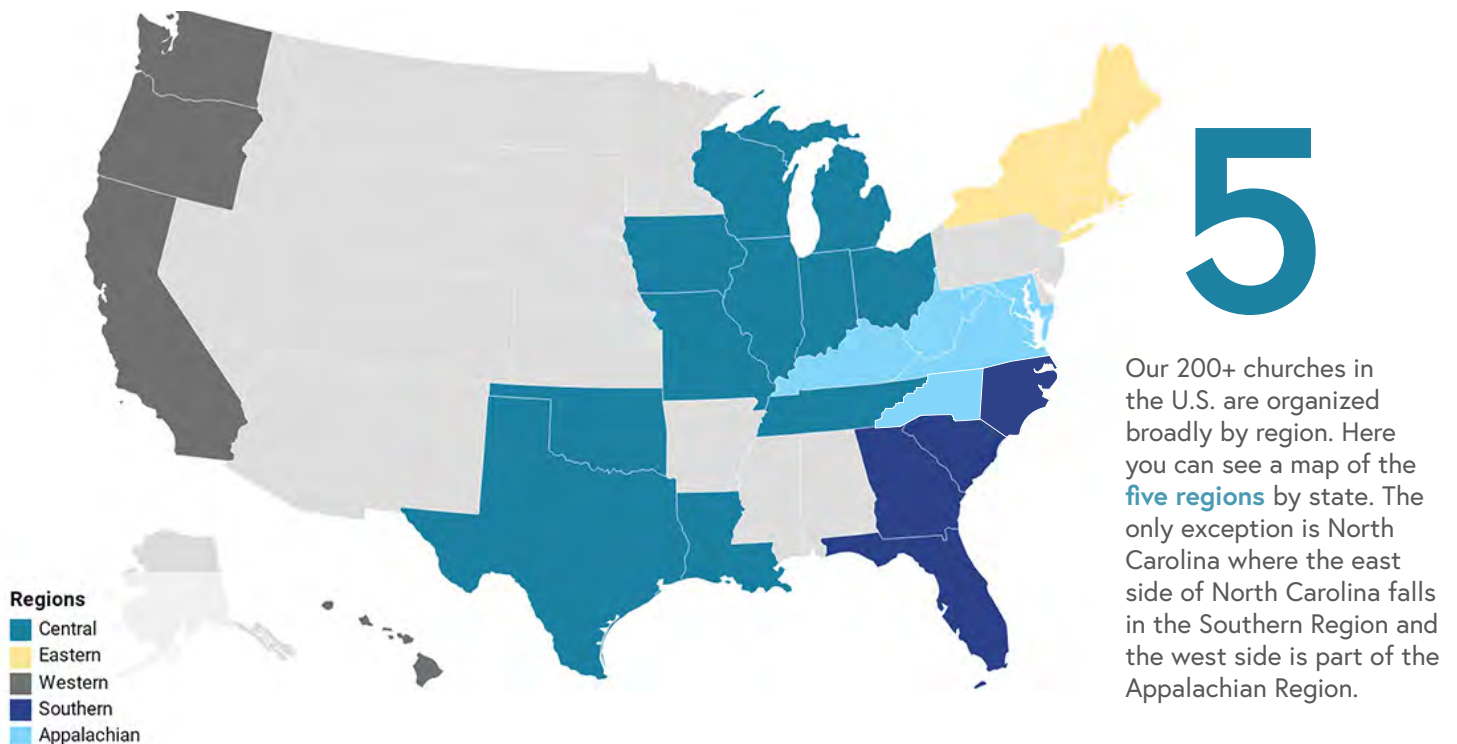

Mission and Structure

We are Advent Christian

Advent Christian General Conference is a denomination of Christian churches in North America, with mission works and partnerships in countries worldwide. Born out of the "Adventist Movement" of the 1800's, our organization is still committed to proclaiming the hope that Jesus is coming back ... maybe today! As we look for his blessed return we occupy ourselves with obeying his commands to make disciples. For more information regarding our beliefs, click on the links below.

Our Mission

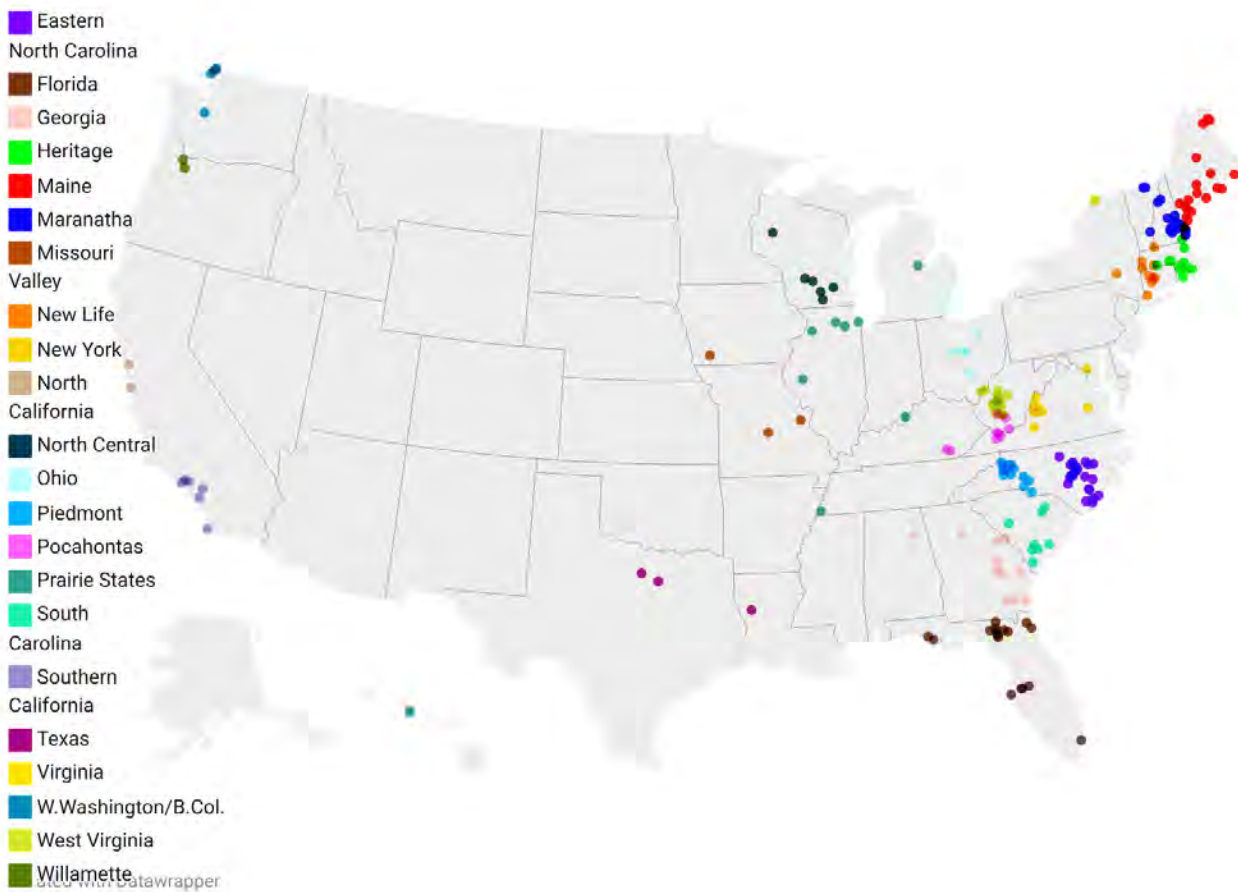

Convinced of the imminent return of our Lord Jesus Christ, Advent Christian General Conference exists to Encourage, Equip and Empower Advent Christian churches worldwide to be obedient to His Great Commandment and Great Commission.

Our 200+ churches in the U.S. are organized broadly by region. Here you can see a map of the five regions by state. The only exception is North Carolina where the east side of North Carolina falls in the Southern Region and the west side is part of the Appalachian Region.

22

Conferences are networks of churches in limited geographical areas that are subsets of the regions. While the twenty-two conferences vary in size and function, most credential pastors, pool resources for local ministry and provide opportunities for fellowship among churches on the local level.
